A F#m C#m
It's you and her, that hurt me
A F#m C#m
Now it seems all the laughter is gone
A F#m C#m
I remember the days going out having fun now, we given up, E A
makes me in the evening song
F#m C#m
I remember this song in vain

D A
Summer nights, drawn by the fire,
C#m D
all the embers where smoldering still,
Bm E
now I'm lost in the cold

A F#m Wasted all I got,
D Bm A E
taste the sour from my eyes
A F#m
My face is rolling salts
D Bm A E
starving candles, dying light
A F#m C#m
Somebody take me home.

A F#m C#

A F#m C#m
 In a pride, that prospered
 A F#m C#m
 still I fear the rain coming down
 A F#m
 I remember the nights holding hands in the park,
 C#m
 in our innocents
 E A
 stirring up the passion that sparked F#m C#m
 I remember the golden days

 D
 We be drinking wine
 A C#m D
 downing it fast, it is almost time
 Bm E almost time to let go

 A F#m Gave it all I got
 D Bm A E
 I'm in pieces, torn apart
 A F#m
 How I know it is all my fault

 D Bm A E
 Starving candles, dying light
 A F#m C#m
 Can somebody take me home
